[NUMB. 815.]

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

From MONDAY December 18th, to MONDAY December 25th, 1749.

LONDON, September 1.

ON the 29th ult. an order was made out to the Exchequer for remitting to Scotland, the money certify'd by the Lords of Seſſions, due to the nobility and gentry, &c. on account of the heretable juriſdictions, aboliſhed by act of parliament.—

The Count de Richlieu, miniſter plenipotentiary from the Emperor, and the Empreſs Queen of Hungary, had his firſt private audience of his majeſty.

On the 30th, ſome artificers, ſeized on board a ſhip at Portſmouth, bound to Spain, were examined, and 9 of them diſcharged from bail, and 7 continued.——Orders were given for proſecuting 17 perſons, moſt of them principals, on the ſtatute, which makes it felony for artificers to go abroad without leave.

SUNDAY 3.

At Newport, Shropſhire, 20 houſes were burnt.

MONDAY 4.

The works of Dunkirk began to be demoliſhed in the preſence of Engliſh ſurveyors, agreeable to the late treaty of Aix.

TUESDAY 5.

The reſtriction of the late E. of Cromartie to a particular place of reſidence was taken off, and liberty given him to remove to any part of England, but not to depart the kingdom; for which two noble perſons have given bond.

Theodore, Baron Neuchoff, ſometime King of Corſica, being lately come from abroad, was impriſoned for debt.

Several tranſports were taken into ſervice, deſign'd for Nova-Scotia, with great quantities of ſtores, and a good number of ſettlers.

SATURDAY 9.

The E. of Harrington, Ld Lieut. of Ireland, ſet out for that kingdom, (and landed there the 20th.)

THURSDAY 14.

The parl. was prorogued to Nov. 16.

The French making pretenſions to a part of Nova Scotia, or Acadia, the Lords of Trade and Plantations have ſearched into the antient records, treaties, and memorials relating to that country, and find that the whole extent of that province has belonged to the Britiſh crown ſince 1725, when all the Indian chiefs took an oath of fidelity to K. George I.——The reſult of this reſearch has been communicated to the E. of Albemarle to give additional force to his remonſtrances againſt the conſtruction of a new fort, now building there, by the French, on the river St. John; and orders were ſent to Gov. Cornwallis, to oppoſe all ſettlements of the French, in any part of the province.

MONDAY 25.

Whether the news papers are ſerious or not, about locuſts being ſeen in St. James's park, one was this day taken up alive, near Derby, and ſome few have been ſeen further North; the ſea keeps the great ſwarms happily from us.

TUESDAY 26.

The Porcupine ſloop of war has been greatly alter'd, and provided with double chain pumps, &c. adapted to the South-Sea, a voyage being intended thither, next ſeaſon, for the further diſcovery of an iſland, which Commodore Anſon touch'd at; for which purpoſe another man of war is preparing, and two ſmall ſloops for victuallers, under command of Capt. Campbell.

The Portugueſe have two guarda coſtas at Cape de Verd, which take all veſſels that come there for a dye, call'd Weed, which is prohibited; they took three Engliſh ſhips, and 8 eſcaped narrowly eſcaped.

SATURDAY 29.

His majeſty gave 1000 l. for relief of the ſufferers by fire at Glaſgow.

The Duke of Somerſet has ſubſcribed 200 l. towards the ſupport of the Scotch fiſheries.

The academy of Bourdeaux have propoſed two new queſtions, viz. What is the formation of hailſtones? and, Are there any peculiar medicaments, or preparations in the art of phyſick, that have a more than ordinary influence over one part of the body rather than another; and, if ſo, what is the cauſe of that effect?

It is reported that the Dutch in the E. Indies have thrown off their dependency on Holland, and form'd a government of their own.

An Engliſh veſſel arrived at Leghorn from Saloniki, was met in her paſſage by 3 Tunis veſſels; and, becauſe the captain would not ſtrike and bring to, they forced him, and then puniſhed him with 300 baſtinadoes on his feet.

According to the plan laid out for the town of Halifax, the capital of Nova Scotia, that city is at firſt to conſiſt of 2000 houſes, diſpoſed into 50 ſtreets of different magnitudes. In the middle of the town is to be a ſpacious ſquare, with an equeſtrian ſtatue of his majeſty.

Edinburgh, Sept. 19. There has been a great take of ſalmon in the river Spey, ſeveral ſhip-loads being ſail'd for the Straights, and there is a very good proſpect of a ſucceſsful herring fiſhery. But the right of fiſhing in the northern ſeas, about the iſles of Orkney and Schetland, excluſive of the ſubjects of Denmark, is called in queſtion by the Danes, who pretend to the ſame excluſive right. In proof of this, they alledge that Chriſtian I. K. of Denmark, on marrying his daughter Margaret, 1469, to James III. of Scotland, bound himſelf to give with her a dowry of 60,000 florins; but finding himſelf, on account of the Sweediſh wars, unable to pay ſo much ready money, it was ſtipulated in the marriage contract, to pay 10,000 florins; and for the reſt, to aſſign to the K. of Scotland, the Croadic, or Orkney iſles. But K. Chriſtian, being prevented by ſome critical circumſtances from paying down more than 2000 florins, he mortgaged to his ſon in law the iſle of Schetland for the remainder, reſerving a right of redemption. The court thinks itſelf authoriſed to reclaim all thoſe iſlands, on reimburſing the ſums for which they were engaged; and further pretend, that if the right of redemption had not been expreſsly reſerved, the Engliſh could not arrogate the leaſt right to that fiſhery, and to the adjacent ſeas, which were never mortgaged, and neceſſarily belong to the firſt poſſeſſors of the iſles.—A poor chairman's wife, aged about 70, was lately delivered of a child, which thrives, and is ſuckled by the mother, who never had one before; her huſband is about her age.

LOW-COUNTRIES.

Prince Charles, our governor, has ſummoned engineers and workmen, for the repairing the fortifications of Bruſſels, Antwerp, Aeth, Mons, Namur and Charleroy, and will employ the retaken deſerters in this work, inſtead of ſhooting them. New money having been coined, the army is paid with it, the officers in ſilver, and ſoldiers in copper.

HOLLAND.

The peace has rather made the people more unwilling to pay the neceſſary taxes, ſo that the difficulty of raiſing the revenue ſtill ſubſiſts, and obliges the regency to diſband 10,000 of its troops.

At Nykopping, in Jutland, was lately caught a mermaid, which from the waiſt upward had a human form, but the reſt was like a fiſh, with a tail turning up behind, the fingers were joined together by a membrane; it ſtruggled, and beat itſelf to death in the net.

Algier,

Algier, Sept. 8. The Dey has named Hadge Mahomet Hodgi, one of the four principal Secretarys of his Houſe, Ambaſſador to the Court of Great Britain, and accordingly he ſails this Day in a Swediſh Ship, and carries with him ſeven Horſes, three or four Tygers, ſome Oſtriches, Antilopes, and ſome of the Manufactures of this Country.

Copenhagen, Oct. 4. N. S. The Marriage lately concluded between her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Louiſa of Denmark and the Duke of Saxe Hildburghauſen, was celebrated on the 1ſt Inſt. at Hirſcholm with great Solemnity and Magnificence. A little before the Ceremony began, his Daniſh Majeſty conferred the Order of the Elephant upon the Duke.

Vienna, Sept. 27. By a private Letter from Brieg in Sileſia, we have an Account, that a Pruſſian Grenadier having laboured under a ſlow Fever for ſix Months, in which he received no Benefit from the Advice of the moſt eminent Phyſicians, put himſelf at length under the Care of the Surgeon Major of the Regiment, by whoſe Directions having taken a Vomit, he brought up a Locuſt as big as a Turky Bean, which is ſuppoſed to have been bred in his Stomach, by ſwallowing ſome of the Eggs of that Creature in a Sallad; ſince which he is perfectly recovered.

WHEREAS there have been tranſmitted to me, by His Majeſty's Command, ſome Authenticated Copies of His Catholic Majeſty's General order to his Governors, requiring them to make reſtitution of all ſuch Prizes taken after the 9th day of Auguſt 1748 as have been carried into any of the Ports under their reſpective Governments, which reſtitution, is to extend, to the Ships, Rigging, Stores, and Cargoes of the ſaid Prizes, and in caſe the whole or any part thereof has been ſold or divided amongſt the Captors, the juſt value to be made good to the ſeveral Owners: Theſe are therefore to give Public Notice of the ſame to all His Majeſty's Trading Subjects in this Government, and that I am ready to aſſiſt them to the utmoſt of my power, and all his Majeſty's Subjects in general, who may have any claim on this Occaſion. JAMES GLEN.
